Orientation

Welcome to Community Counseling Center

Our agency is a private charitable, 501 (c) (3), not-for-profit behavioral health organization that has been in service since 1974. It is our mission “to provide comprehensive behavioral health and prevention services to every person in need in our five-county region” (Cape Girardeau, Bollinger, Madison, Perry, and Ste. Genevieve counties). To promote and conserve the health of individuals living with mental health and substance abuse conditions regardless of race, creed, color, sex, sexual orientation, gender identify, language, socioeconomic status, disability, or national origin.”

Community Counseling Center is the Administrative Agent for the Missouri Department of Mental Health that is entrusted to provide a full array of comprehensive mental health services in our five-county area. Services are provided according to the needs of the individual. Clients and staff work together to develop a plan of treatment that is consistent with the goals and wishes of each person served.

We provide a variety of treatment services. Please see available services within this booklet.

Office Hours of Operation

All office locations are open Monday - Friday starting at 8:00 am – 4:30 pm.
Evening hours vary according to location.

Accommodations

Pursuant to the American with Disabilities Act of 1990, it is the consumer's responsibility to request reasonable accommodations. Please let us know if you have any special needs and we will make every attempt to accommodate those needs.

Emergency and Evacuation

Quality of services as well as the health and safety of those receiving services are two very important issues for Community Counseling Center. You will notice emergency plans/maps posted throughout the facilities. These plans identify the evacuation routes, telephone numbers for the police, fire emergency, and poison control, The emergency plans/maps also identify the nearest exits and where the nearest first aid/emergency kits are located.

To ensure the safety of our consumers, visitors, and personnel, the agency performs routine emergency drills to adequately prepare for possible emergencies. If you are present during a drill or actual emergency, a staff member will provide direction on the appropriate procedure (i.e., evacuation of building, taking shelter within the agency, etc.). Please follow the direction of staff during such drills or emergency to protect the safety of yourself and others.

Consumer Suggestions, Feedback, and Surveys

Consumers are encouraged to give input into the agency concerning quality of care, achievement, outcomes and satisfaction of services. You can provide input by submitting a written note to the Clinical Director or through our formal grievance procedure which will be explained in detail under your Individual Rights. In addition, well-being surveys are gathered throughout the fiscal year at each clinic location and phone surveys are completed in several of our community-based programs to obtain input related to satisfaction. There are also periodic surveys sent out to consumers by the state of Missouri. It is important that you complete and return.

Agency Code of Ethics

Each employee of the Community Counseling Center (CCC) is mandated to follow an Agency Code of Ethics that regulates their professional conduct and guides their moral and legal relationships within the agency and with consumers. A summarized copy of the agency Code of Ethics has been provided below:

These principles guide the agency's Code of Ethics:

- Autonomy: To honor the right to make informed individual decision to promote wellness and recovery.
- Beneficence: To do good to others.
- Non-Maleficence: To do no harm to others.
- Justice: To be fair and give equality to others.
- Fidelity: To be loyal, honest and keep promises.
- Integrity: To be what we say are, to follow professional codes of conduct and to support the mission and vision of the Center.

All CCC employees are to provide professional behavioral health services in a manner that respects the dignity and promotes the welfare of each person served.

Each CCC employee is responsible to the Center to act in the best interest of the person served.

The Center will employ persons qualified by education and experience.

Each CCC employee is responsible to the community and the Center to treat all persons served with dignity and respect.

Professional and administrative staff will function within the limits of their professional competencies.

CCC employees and Center will provide only those services which are necessary for treatment, wellness and recovery.

No one is denied services due to inability to pay.

The Center does not discriminate and provides reasonable accommodations to serve person with physical and mental disabilities.

The Center will encourage client wellness and recovery.

The Center will encourage the development of professional skills and knowledge for staff.

The Center will bill services appropriately and ensure appropriate documentation.

Any consumer who has questions about the ethical conduct of the agency's employees may contact the Director of Compliance for a resolution to these questions.

4. You have the right to a prompt, fair, impartial consideration of your complaint according to the procedure below:

Step 1: We recommend that you first attempt to discuss the issue directly with the staff involved.

Step 2: If you are not comfortable or dissatisfied with the results of this discussion, you should then ask to speak with the program supervisor. You can expect a response within 5 working days.

Step 3: If the program supervisor has failed to provide satisfactory results, you may contact the Director of Compliance, verbally or in writing regarding the issue and concerns. You can expect a response within 5 working days.

Step 4: If you are still dissatisfied, the issue/concern can be brought to the attention of the Executive Director who will contact you within 5 working days.

Step 5: If the issue continues to be unresolved after speaking with the Executive Director, you may submit a written complaint to the Community Counseling Center Board of Directors. The issue will be reviewed by the Board within 30 days. The decision of the Board will be final.

5. You have the right to report any infringements of your rights, including your right to be free from abuse or neglect. A list of external entities you can make the reports to has been provided on the back of this handbook.

Limitations to Your Rights

1. Community Counseling Center staff are ethically and legally responsible, as mandated reporters, to breach confidentiality in the event that a consumer is considered a danger to themselves and/or others or if a consumer reports a suspected child abuse or neglect to Community Counseling Center staff.
2. Any restrictions to your rights, including confidentiality, as outlined by federal and state statutes.
3. Provide services and treatment, including medications, when a medical or dental emergency exist which would endanger the life or adversely affect the health of the consumer and he/she is unable to give consent.
4. Communicate with courts or responsible officials required by statutes, rules, court decisions, or subpoena/court order.

Loss of Rights and Privileges:

Program consumers are encouraged to participate in all program services according to their individual needs, goals, and preferences. Exceptions to this include when the treatment team determines that the client may be at risk to self or others or is noncompliant with treatment recommendations or agency rules discussed above. In these circumstances, services may be adjusted or restricted as determined by the treatment team.

If your rights or privileges are restricted due to the above or justifications listed in the Consumer Individual Rights, you, your parent/guardian, and/or any other entity you have designated shall be notified of these restrictions as well as these restrictions being documented in your clinical record.

Reinstatement of rights and privileges:

When it is determined the circumstances resulting in a consumer's services being adjusted or restricted have been resolved, the client will regain their rights and privileges as determined by the treatment team. Program staff and/or interdisciplinary team meetings will be held to discuss actions to be taken and time lengths involved. Continued consumer status will be determined during program staffing and/or interdisciplinary team meetings. You have the right to attend and participate in such meetings.

Overall Agency & Group Rules

Participation in service activities may be limited in the following instances:

1. Physical violence is not tolerated.
2. Abusive and sexually inappropriate language is not tolerated.
3. Seclusion and restraint are not utilized by CCC, with the exception of our Cottonwood Residential and Youth Day Treatment programs. For all other programs, aggression (verbal or physical) will be responded to using positive behavioral interventions, including de-escalation and crisis intervention. In the event attempts to de-escalate are unsuccessful, law enforcement will be contacted to assist with safety concerns.
4. Legal or prescription drugs brought into the agency should be maintained on your person at all times and not left out where others can access them. Prescriptions should be in labeled prescription bottles, when possible. Legal or prescription drugs that are found will be submitted to our nursing department. If we are unable to identify the owner, nursing staff will destroy medication.
5. Illegal drug or alcohol use is not tolerated on agency property. Consumers who are determined to be under the influence of drugs or alcohol and are disrupting services of others will be asked to leave the agency and may return when able to participate.
6. Weapons (guns, knives) may not be brought on agency property. If a weapon is presented to staff for safekeeping, staff will determine a responsible party (consumer friend or family member) and request that they secure the weapon for the consumers benefit. If no responsible person can take possession of the weapon, the police are to be notified and requested to take the weapon from the premises. Any consumer determined to have a weapon in their possession and are unwilling to proceed with safekeeping will be asked to leave the agency property.
7. To promote a healthy environment, the use of tobacco products is prohibited on any CCC campus or in an agency own/operated vehicle by visitors, consumers, and personnel with the exception of the following programs/services campus:
 - a. PSR program(s)
 - b. IRTS program(s)
 - c. PISL program(s)
 - d. ITCD Group service(s)For the above programs, will be allowed to use tobacco products in designated locations during breaks. For these purposes, tobacco products are defined as cigars, cigarettes, pipes, hookahs, all forms of smokeless tobacco, clove cigarettes and other smoking devices such as vapor and electronic cigarettes.
8. Program consumers are expected to wear seat belts during vehicle transportation.
9. Group Rules: Confidentiality of group members' communication and information by other group members is not protected by law. Therefore, group members must agree to uphold the confidentiality of information presented in group by other members.

This includes but is not limited to names, physical description, as well as the content discussed in group.

Upon enrollment in group services, you will notified that participating in a group does not guarantee confidentiality due to the nature of other members being present, but also that you understand as a member that you are required to keep all information presented confidential.

Compliance with Treatment Recommendations

Program consumers are encouraged and expected to comply with treatment recommendations, including attendance for all scheduled sessions. If unable to be here for a scheduled appointment, you are expected to call ahead of time (24 hours or more) to cancel and reschedule.

Transition and Discharge Information

Transition to another provider or level of care as well as discharge from services is based on your individual needs and participation in treatment. This determination will involve your treatment team as well as your participation in decision making.

Although transition and/or discharge is individualized, below are basic information regarding transition and discharge criteria:

Transition Criteria:

1. Individual's level of functioning no longer justifies medical necessity based on the outlined admission criteria or level of functioning describes for levels of care. They would be transitioned to a lower level of care as determined by the treatment team, including the consumer and/or guardian.
2. Individual's level of functioning has decreased or there has been a symptom increase requiring a more intensive level of care such as residential services.

Discharge Criteria:

1. Met all treatment related goals or no longer in need of services;
2. Moved out of our catchment area;
3. Refusal of services;
4. Placed in setting that no longer meets eligibility (i.e., nursing home)

CCC Policy on Service Animals

It is the policy of Community Counseling Center to abide by the ADA guidelines as to service animals.

A service animal is a dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for a person with a disability. Examples of such work or tasks include guiding people who are blind, alerting people who are deaf, pulling a wheelchair, alerting and protecting a person who is having a seizure, reminding a person with a mental illness to take prescribed medications, or performing other duties. Service animals are working animals, not pets. The work or task a dog has been trained to provide must be directly related to the person's disability. Dogs whose sole function is to provide comfort or emotional support do not qualify as service animals under the ADA.

Only service animals will be allowed in any of our facilities.

Under the ADA, service animals must be harnessed, leashed, or tethered, unless these devices interfere with the service animal's work or the individual's disability prevents using these devices. In that case, the individual must maintain control of the animal through voice, signal, or other effective controls.

No Show & Late Arrival Policy

In order to maximize the utilization of available appointments, Community Counseling Center has established parameters in defining "no-show" appointments as well as guidelines in managing clients/patients who no-show for appointments.

The center considers it a no-show anytime the client/patient does not show for their scheduled appointment without any notification to Community Counseling Center.

Late cancellations are considered a no-show – a late cancellation is anytime a client/patient fails to cancel or reschedule 24 hours prior to the date/time of their appointment. Cancellations or reschedules that are done more than 24 hours prior to the appointment time are not considered a no-show.

Clients/patients who arrive 10 minutes or more late for an appointment will be rescheduled or referred to access to care. Late arrivals are identified as a no-show.

New Patients

If a client/patient is a no-show for their first appointment, they will be rescheduled only after a conversation with an identified Community Counseling Center staff, to address any barriers that would keep them from making their scheduled appointment.

If the client no-shows for a second initial appointment, then they will be required to go back through Access to Care to assess their need for services.

Established Patients

Therapy Services

If three (3) no-shows are documented within a consecutive, three (3) month time period, no further appointments will be scheduled, and any future appointments will be canceled. Client will be asked to meet with Access to Care or other assigned staff (such as their case manager) to assess for barriers to keeping scheduled appointments and/or to assess their need for services.

Psychiatry Services (Medication Management)

If a client/patient no-shows for their appointment with the psychiatrist or nurse practitioner, they will only be given weekly refills of medication of non-controlled and Schedule 4 controlled medication, until they are seen by the physician, with a maximum of 4 weeks of refills. Any Schedule 2 controlled medications will be refilled at the discretion of the physician.

If the client/patient no-shows for four (4) appointments within a consecutive, twelve (12) month period, they will not be rescheduled. They will be asked to go through Access to Care or other assigned staff (such as their case manager) to be assessed for barriers to keeping scheduled appointments and/or to assess for need for services.

Prescribing Practices

Psychiatric services are available at Community Counseling Center (CCC) locations in Cape Girardeau, Bollinger, Madison, Perry and Ste. Genevieve counties. In addition to providing direct care, our physicians direct the course of treatment for patients served by the Center and provide education and consultation to staff and the general medical community.

All the services offered at CCC, including psychiatric care and medication, are actually the tools needed for the path of recovery and not the solution for the emotional and mental health challenges. The psychiatric care will be based on diagnosis and in accordance to the standards of care including guidelines set by the Federal Drug Administration (FDA) and American Psychiatric Association guidelines.

Controlled Mediations Policy:

One of Community Counseling Center's primary goals is to make sure that patients remain safe while being prescribed a controlled substance. CCC psychiatrists will prescribe controlled medications dependent ONLY on his/her evaluation and diagnosis. CCC psychiatrists will write prescriptions for controlled medications during regular office hours only.

As an active participant in your treatment plan and wellbeing, you are expected to adhere to the following components of the agency's policy regarding controlled medications.

Failure to abide by any of these components of the policy could result in your psychiatrist no longer prescribing these or other medications for you and/or could result in discharge from psychiatric services at Community Counseling Center.

- You are responsible for notifying CCC, 7 to 10 days before running out of a medication
- You are responsible for your prescriptions and your medications; you will store your medications in a safe place so that they do not get misplaced, stolen, wet, and/or destroyed. Your psychiatrist will not automatically consent to refills if any of these events occur.
- You agree to take your medications as prescribed and understand that if you abuse/misuse your medications, you put yourself at risk for psychological dependence or addiction; in addition you understand that you will not receive early refills under these circumstances.
- You agree not to use alcohol, illegal drugs or other people's prescribed medications while being prescribed a controlled medication and understand that doing so has a potential for deadly interactions.
- You agree to keep follow-up appointments as scheduled and if you need to reschedule, you will call the office to do so more than 24 hours prior to your appointment time.
- You agree to routine and random urine drug screenings as ordered by your psychiatrist.

Urine Drug Screening Policy

The staff of Community Counseling Center is committed to providing effective treatment to patient's suffering from disorders, including those requiring treatment with controlled substances. In order to monitor and account for the patient's compliance in taking their medication as prescribed, all patients will be subject to urine drug screening.

All new patients over the age of six (6) will be required to submit a urine sample for baseline urine drug screening at time of first appointment with the provider. Refusal to submit a urine sample for this initial UDS could result in rescheduling of the appointment until such time as the client agrees to comply with this requirement.

Any existing patient that is currently being prescribed controlled medications will submit a urine sample for urine drug screening a minimum of two (2) times per year, with possible additional random testing ordered by the provider when warranted.

Any existing patient that is started on a controlled medication for the first time, will submit a urine sample for urine drug screening at the next follow-up appointment with the provider. The patient will then be required to submit a urine sample for urine drug screening a minimum of two (2) times per year, with possible random testing ordered by the provider when warranted.

Any existing patient not currently prescribed controlled medications could be subject to random urine drug screening per provider's order. The provider may also order urine drug screening to check for non-controlled medication compliance when current treatment no longer seems to be effective.

The provider reserves the right to obtain a random drug screen during an appointment if there is reason to suspect non-compliance with medication. Any patient will be called to come to the clinic to submit a drug screen if adequate cause exists. The following justifies adequate cause:

- a) A call has been placed to the clinic from another prescribing office or pharmacist that patient is abusing or diverting his/hers controlled prescription
- b) Information has been received by the provider from the client's ITCD or CPRC staff reporting signs, symptoms and/or behaviors that would indicate a need for urine drug screening.
- c) Any patient who displays behavior, signs or symptoms consistent with withdrawal.
- d) Any patient who displays behavior indicating a loss of their normal mental or physical faculties.

Any patient who refuses to provide a urine sample for drug testing shall not receive a prescription for a controlled substance. In addition, the provider has the right to discontinue services with any client unwilling to comply with UDS screening when requested by the provider.

Financial Policy

Payment is due at the time of service unless you have third-party coverage or have made prior arrangements with the Center. The Center accepts insurance reimbursement, Medicare, and Medicaid. It is our desire that no client be denied services for financial reasons. Clients who meet income and residence guidelines may have their fees reduced. At time of completing admission paperwork, proof of residence and income information is required to determine eligibility for services and related fees. Clients are responsible for any co-pays or deductibles/spend-downs associated with their payer source. The Center reviews all financial and proof of residence information at least once per year. Fee amounts, and patient responsibility may change at that time. If it is determined that you are responsible for any fees associated to your services (beyond co-pays and deductibles/spend-downs), you will be informed of this at the time of admission.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

Notice of Community Counseling Center Privacy Practices

THIS NOTICE DESCRIBES HOW MEDICAL INFORMATION ABOUT YOU MAY BE USED AND DISCLOSED AND HOW YOU CAN GET ACCESS TO THIS INFORMATION. PLEASE REVIEW IT CAREFULLY.

This notice is intended to inform you about our practices related to the protection of the privacy of your medical records. We are required by law to ensure that medical information that identifies you is kept private. Further, we must give you this information related to our legal duties and privacy practices with respect to any medical information we create or receive about you. We are required by law to follow the terms of the notice that is currently in effect.

This notice will explain how we may use and disclose your medical information, our obligations related to the use and disclosure of your medical information and your rights related to any medical information that we have about you. This notice applies to the medical records that are generated by the Community Counseling Center.

With a few exceptions, we are required to obtain your consent or authorization for the use or disclosure of the information. We have listed some of the reasons why we might use or disclose your medical information and some examples of the types of uses or disclosure below. Not every use of disclosure is covered, but all the ways that we are allowed to use and disclose information will fall into one of the categories.

If you have any questions about the content of the Notice of Privacy Practices, or if you need to contact someone at the Center about any of the information contained in the Notice of Privacy Practices, the contact person is:

Name of Contact: Lisa Tolbert, Privacy Officer
Title: Director of Compliance
Address: 402 S. Silver Springs Road
Cape Girardeau, MO 63703
Telephone: (573) 332-2785

In addition to Center departments, employees, staff, and other Center personnel, (any health care professional who is authorized to enter information in your medical record) will also follow the practices described in this Notice of Privacy Practices.

Use and Disclosure of Medical Information that Requires your Consent:

We can use or disclose medical information about you regarding your treatment, and payment for services if we have your consent. If you do not give us permission to use or disclose your medical information, we do not have to treat you.

For treatment: To provide you with medical treatment or services, we may need to use or disclose information about you to doctors, nurses, counselors, case managers or Center personnel who are involved in the treatment. For example, a doctor may need to know what drugs you are allergic to before prescribing medication. Departments within the Center may share medical information about you to coordinate your care. For instance, the crisis service may request information to complete paperwork.

For payment: We may use and disclose your medical information for the Center to bill and receive payment for the treatment that you received here. For example, we may use or disclose your medical information to your insurance company about a service you received at the Center so that your insurance company can pay us or reimburse you for the service. We may also ask your insurance company for prior authorization for a service to determine whether the insurance company will cover it.

For Health Care Operation: We can use and disclose medical information about you for Center operations. These include uses and disclosures that are necessary to run the Center and make sure that our clients receive quality care. For example, medical information about you and other Center clients may also be combined to allow us to evaluate whether the Center should offer additional services or discontinue other services and whether certain treatments are effective. We may also compare this information with other centers to evaluate whether we can make improvements in the care and services that we offer. To best protect your privacy when we are combining medical information, we will remove information that identifies you.

Uses and disclosures of medical information that do not require your consent or authorization:

We can use or disclose health information about you without your consent or authorization when there is an emergency or when we are required by law to treat you, when we are required by law to use or disclose certain information, or when there are substantial communication barriers to obtaining consent from you. Further, we may use or disclose your health information without your consent or authorization in any of the following circumstances.

- When it is required by law
- When it involves use and disclosure for public health activities, such as mandated disease reporting, etc.
- When reporting information about victims of abuse, neglect or domestic violence
- When disclosing information for the purpose of health oversight activities, such as audits, investigations, licensure of disciplinary actions or legal proceedings or actions
- When disclosing information related to a research project when a waiver of authorization has been approved by the Privacy committee
- When we believe in good faith that the disclosure is necessary to avert a serious health or safety threat to you or to the public's safety
- In the case of a prison inmate, information can be released to the correctional facility in which he/she resides for the following purposes: (1) for the institution to provide the inmate with health care; (2) to protect the health and safety of the inmate or the health and safety of others; or (3) for the safety and security of the correctional facility; and when disclosure is necessary to comply with worker's compensation laws or purposes

Planned Uses or Disclosures to which you may object:

We will use or disclose your health information for any of the purposes described in this section unless you affirmatively object to or otherwise restrict a particular release. You must direct your written objections or restrictions to Community Counseling Center in c/o Privacy Officer, 402 S Silver Springs Road, Cape Girardeau MO 63703. The telephone number is 573-334-1100.

We may use or disclose your health information to contact you and remind you that you have an appointment for treatment or medical care.

We may use or disclose your health information to provide you with information about or recommendations of possible treatment options or alternatives that may have interest you.

We may use and disclose your health information to inform you about health benefits or services that may interest you.

We can disclose health information about you to a public or private entity that is authorized by law or its chart to assist in disaster relief efforts, i.e., the American Red Cross for the purpose of notification of family and/or friends of your whereabouts and condition.

Your Rights with Respect to Health Information

Rights to Request Restrictions

You have the right to request that we restrict any use or disclosure of your health information. We are not required to agree to any restriction that you request. If we do agree to adhere to your restrictions, we will comply with your request unless the information is needed to provide you treatment. Request to restrict uses or disclosures can be made verbally or in writing. If verbal request is received, the staff member receiving such request shall document this on the appropriate form and submit to the Privacy Officer. Your request must indicate (1) what information you want limited; (2) whether you want to limit our use, disclosure or both; and (3) to whom you want the limits to apply.

Rights to Receive Information in Certain Form and Location

You have the right to receive information about your health in a certain form and location. For instance, you can request that we not contact you at work. To request confidential communications, you must make your request in writing to the Privacy Officer. The request must tell us how and/or when you want to receive information. We will accommodate reasonable requests.

Right to Inspect and Copy Protected Health Information

You have the right to inspect and copy your health information that may be used to make decisions about your care, with the exception of psychotherapy notes. If you want to see or copy your medical information, you must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Officer. If you request copies of information, we may charge a fee for any costs associated with your request, including the cost of copies, mailing or other supplies.

In limited circumstance we can deny you access to your health information. If access is denied, you can request that the denial be reviewed. Another licensed health care professional chosen by the Center will review your request and the denial. We will adhere to the decision of the reviewer.

Right to Request Amendment to Protected Health Information

You have a right to request that your health information be changed if you believe that it is incorrect or incomplete. You have a right to request changes for as long as the information is kept by the Center. To request a change in your information, you must submit it in writing to the Privacy Officer. In addition, you must give the reason that you want the information changed, including why you think the information is incorrect or incomplete.

We can deny your request if it is not in writing and if it does not include a reason why the information should be changed. We can also deny your request for the following reasons.

- The information was not created by the Center, unless the person or entity that did create the information is no longer available
- The information is not part of the medical record kept by or for the Center
- The information is not part of the information that you would be permitted to inspect and copy
- We believe the information is accurate and complete

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures

You have the right to receive an accounting of disclosures of medical information that we have made, with some exceptions. You must submit your request in writing to the Privacy Officer. Your request must state the time period that may not be longer than six (6) years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003. You should include how you want the information reported to you, i.e. by paper, electronically, etc. You have the right to receive a free accounting every twelve (12) months. If you request more than one (1) accounting in a twelve (12) month period, we may charge you a reasonable fee for the cost of providing that list. We will notify you of the charge for such a request and you can then choose to withdraw or change your request before any costs are incurred.

You have the right to a paper copy of this Notice of Privacy Practices. Even if you have agreed to receive this notice in another form, you can still have a paper copy of this notice. To obtain a paper copy of this notice, contact the Privacy Officer. You can obtain a copy of this notice at our website: www.cccntr.com.
